Subject: [First Name], are you still waiting to attract what you want?

Body:

Hi [First Name],

Have you found yourself wondering why some people seem to manifest with ease while others are still struggling to put the Law of Attraction to good use in their life?

If you have, you're not alone. I had asked myself the very same question more than once... until I bumped into this information that I'll share with you and it all made sense.

You've probably heard that our present situation is the direct result of our past experiences and programming, and I believe this to be true. Like attracts like, right?

So why is it then that if we are so different, we are all trying to manifest the life of our dreams by using the exact same formula? It doesn't make sense, does it? It would be like trying to fit square pegs into round holes!

You see, if it was as easy as following a cake recipe, then one book and one book alone about manifestation would be the solution for all of us!

But it's obvious that it takes more than that. This is why I found Tamara's approach very enlightening, and I believe you are going to like it too.

"Discover Your Potential" is a 3-in-1 all inclusive eCoaching program that provides you not only with the information, but with a step-by-step plan presented in a workbook where you will be actually "doing" your homework to help you recognize your own blocks. Once you do this, you will be guided to make the changes you MUST make in order for you to start manifesting with ease.

And if that wasn't enough, you also get personalized attention from Tamara herself, a successful Counselor and Life Coach that lives by these principles every day. Tamara will answer all of your questions, guide you, keep you motivated and acknowledge your progress!!

Yes! You heard that right. You get PERSONAL one-on-one coaching so even if you get stuck and don't know what to do next, you have your Life Coach to guide you along the way!

Oh, and don't you worry about cost... Tamara is on a mission to help as many people as she possibly can to live empowered lives. So... I rather let you see it by yourself, because if I told you, you wouldn't believe me...

BUT hurry. As you can imagine, just as the rest of us, Tamara has just 24 hours a day, so as soon as she gets booked, she'll pull this offer... So if you want to manifest the life you've always desired, the one you know you truly deserve to have... this may be your best chance. Don't miss it!

Sincerely,
