

Email #2

Subject: [First Name], “The Secret” can work for You!

Body:

Dear [First Name],

There is no doubt that “The Secret” has been an awakening experience for many. Thousands of individuals worldwide have watched it and followed the advice... but not too many have achieved the results they expected... have you?

If you have watched “The Secret” and have read multiple books about the Law of Attraction but are still waiting to achieve the results you were looking for, you are going to be thrilled by the time you finish reading this e-mail.

My friend Tamara Baruhovich, has put together a wonderful eCoaching Program called “Discover Your Potential”. She calls it an eCoaching Program because it is much more than just a book. It is an experiential program, meaning you will work on your particular situation while being guided by Tamara herself.

You see, there are plenty of great books out there... but to truly learn to manifest the life of your dreams, you need much more than just information. You need to work on your blocks and learn how to overcome your limitations.

A Life coach can help you with this for sure, but at over $100 an hour average, many of us just couldn't afford one. If you relate to this, you are going to fall in love with this program's offer!

[Link]

I encourage you to take advantage of it now. Common sense tells me that Tamara's time is limited and she may pull this offer at any time.

This is your chance to truly get what you deserve in life... the life of your dreams is just a few steps away. Will you take it?

[Link]

Wishing you Success,

[Name]

[Other personal information you may want to share; i.e. your website, contact form, etc]